

SETH NAVAJBAI FAKIRJI GOIPORIA DAREMEHER (DADGAH)

Address	: Via Umergaon, Post Davier Pin 396 165, Gujarat
Tel. No.	: None
Distance	: 5 Km. from Umergaon Railway Station.
Mode of Transport	: Autorickshaw, ST Bus
Date Consecrated	: Roz Ardibehest, Mah Adar, 1224 A.Y. 26th May 1855.
Present Panthaki	: Mr. Dali Vikajee Wadia
Present Parsi Population	: 60 (including neighbouring villages)
Visiting Hours	: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Tablet : "This daremeher was built by Bai Navajbai of Bombay, daughter of the late Seth Nasserwanji Fakirji Rustamji Goiporia in memory of her father, through Seth Faramji Hiraji Mehta consecrated on Roz 3 Ardibehest, Mah 9 Adar, 1224 A.Y. 26th May 1855 A.C. and opened for the use of Zoroastrians of Davier and neighbouring villages.

It was renovated at a cost of Rs.8,500. Seth Hormajsha Cooverji Choudhry of Rajkot donated Rs.5,000 in memory of his wife late Bai Banoobai and Davier Parsi Zarthosti anjuman contributed Rs.3,500. The new sacred building was consecrated and opened this day

Roz 3, Mah 9, Shehensahi era 1308 A.Y. Saturday 6-5-1939 A.C.

A deep verandah on two sides holds a simple structure with the entrance porch highlighting the agiary. The bull capitals adorn the columns with typical saw-tooth parapet of the Sassanian period and the farohar in front are the main features of the agiary.

There is one dokhma functioning out of three dokhmas at Govada Zai village presently looked after by Davier, Zaibordi and Dahanu anjumans.

SETH NAVAJBAI FAKIRJI GOIPORIA DAREMEHER (DADGAH)

Address	: Via Umergaon, Post Davier Pin 396 165, Gujarat
Tel. No.	: None
Distance	: 5 Km. from Umergaon Railway Station.
Mode of Transport	: Autorickshaw, ST Bus
Date Consecrated	: Roz Ardibehest, Mah Adar, 1224 A.Y. 26th May 1855.
Present Panthaki	: Mr. Dali Vikajee Wadia
Present Parsi Population	: 60 (including neighbouring villages)
Visiting Hours	: 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Tablet : "This daremeher was built by Bai Navajbai of Bombay, daughter of the late Seth Nasserwanji Fakirji Rustamji Goiporia in memory of her father, through Seth Faramji Hiraji Mehta consecrated on Roz 3 Ardibehest, Mah 9 Adar, 1224 A.Y. 26th May 1855 A.C. and opened for the use of Zoroastrians of Davier and neighbouring villages.

It was renovated at a cost of Rs.8,500. Seth Hormajsha Cooverji Choudhry of Rajkot donated Rs.5,000 in memory of his wife late Bai Banoobai and Davier Parsi Zarthosti anjuman contributed Rs.3,500. The new sacred building was consecrated and opened this day

Roz 3, Mah 9, Shehensahi era 1308 A.Y. Saturday 6-5-1939 A.C.

A deep verandah on two sides holds a simple structure with the entrance porch highlighting the agiary. The bull capitals adorn the columns with typical saw-tooth parapet of the Sassanian period and the farohar in front are the main features of the agiary.

There is one dokhma functioning out of three dokhmas at Govada Zai village presently looked after by Davier, Zaibordi and Dahanu anjumans.